Carnival Tonight At Football Field Marks Halloween

Food Booths And Big Parade Feature Of Annual Event Here

Tonight at Memorial Field Halloween will be celebrated with the traditional emphasis on ghosts, goblins, and witches, as the P.T.A. sponsored Carnival gets under way. The annual parade will begin as soon as the participants are assembled. School children participating in the parade should report to their home rooms at 6 pm. Pre-school children should gather at the school bleachers at 7 pm. Parade judges will include representatives of the various civic organizations; and Mayor W. L. Collins will award prizes.

Other attractions will include a parade of cars from the various automobile firms in the city, and the popular "Dutch Auction" put on by the Elks Club. Booths at the Carnival will be open at 5:30 pm, before the parade begins, and will include a number of food shops.

snack at home before you come," warns Mrs. Bob Lamm, head of the booth committee, who points out that hamburgers, cake and coffee, hot dogs, soft drinks, salads, pies, and more hearty fare will be served. Football Team Meets Key West Conchs Tonight

Despite heavy rains which have curtailed football practice sessions during the past two weeks, Belle Glade's Rams have been working hard to win the battle with the once defeated Key West Conchs.

The Rams, hoping to improve on their 2 wins, 2 lost, 1 tie record, have been concentrating on defensive work aimed to stop the powerful Conch running and passing attacks. Belle Glade coaches consider the Key West team the strongest offensive and defensive team met by the Rams up to this point in the season. Belle Glade is expected to be at full strength at the opening game last week. Bob Barber and Claude McLeod will be back in the starting lineup. Probable line-up will be: L. Eugene Phillips; LT, Shelby Smith; RB, Junior Pitts; C, Bob Barber; RB, Peter Kelley; RT, Ray Prescott; RE, Bobby Kent; QB, Jimmy Williams; B, Ken Kirkham; RH, Levan Bass; LH, Claude McLeod.

The Rams will travel by charter bus, leaving Belle Glade early this morning.

Bean Bowl Classic Set Next Thursday

Two Negro football teams, the Everglades and the local High "Bobcats" and the Carver High Eagles of Delray, will meet in the Bean Bowl Classic on Thursday night, Nov. 6, in the annual Bean Blossom Classic. Sponsored annually by the Lions Club at the request of the local Negro school, the contest includes each year an outstanding Negro team from some other school in the state. Enthusiastic spectators at the game include both whites and Negroes; and a sell-out of tickets is expected. James Wieringo, Lions Club chairman in charge of arrangements for the event, reports that preceding the game, a big parade will march from the school at Camp Osochee, and through the city before going to the football field.

Highlighting the parade and game will be the 72-piece school band, playing under the direction of M. M. Hamilton. At the half, "Miss E.V.H." will be crowned in a gala celebration. "Miss E.V.H." who has lost the first three games of this season, will attempt to hit their winning drive against the visiting Eagles next Thursday. Light on poundage this time, the players hope by teamwork and good strategy to overcome the disadvantage.

Emmett Roberts Named President Of County RDB

Prominent Belle Glade Man Chosen To Succeed G. Bernie Bensen

Emmett S. Roberts, local Housing Authority director, was unanimously chosen president of the Palm Beach County Resources Development Board at last Thursday night's meeting of RDB directors in West Palm Beach.

Mr. Roberts, who has served two years as a director, succeeds G. Bernie Bensen as president of the organization.

In these times of mud-slinging, whistle stop campaigning and international brawls, appraisal of candidates should be thorough. Party lines on a national level are so crossed by defection in the Halls of Congress that our two-party system is obliterated by those who walk plank in each platform with equal agility and consistency; at present there seem to be no great party differences.

This is a time of individuality and individual principles. So, our candidates should be favored on a basis of individual records and demonstrated principles, rather than moss-backed party lines.

Experience pays off no more anywhere than with elected public servants, when ability is backed by honesty, industry, and statesmanship in the White House.

Well known here for his tireless devotion to community projects, Mr. Roberts has been Housing Authority director since 1947. He is a past district governor of the Lions Club, a director of the Palm Beach County Tuberculosis Association, chairman of the Armed Forces blood drive, a director of the Chamber of Commerce.

Near Riot, But Referee's Right

A football game that ended in a near-riot Tuesday evening at Memorial Field, brought Referee Dorsey Pugh into the Herald offices Wednesday with this teaser:

"Text your football sense, Cal: This play which could have affected the score in the game Tuesday between Clewiston Junior Tigers and Belle Glade's Baby Rams."

Farmers Asked To Help Get Out Vote

In an effort to bring out the largest vote in the history of this area, the local "Get Out The Vote" Committee has asked farmers to help in the drive to bring their laborers to the polls to vote.

"We ask the cooperation of the farmers to allow field hands to vote at 7 am before they leave for the fields," Committee representatives said. "Officials at the Negro polls will expedite the voting of these people to prevent loss of time."

If you farmers will load your laborers and their families to the polls, you will render your country, as well as your employees, a service.

"If you load your workers before the polls open, please cooperate by bringing them in to vote before the polls close in the evening," the committee said.

THE GREAT AMERICAN Right to Squawk AND HOW TO EARN IT

After Nov. 4, no matter who wins the election, there'll be lots of squawks.

That's good. That's a healthy expression of the American right of free speech.

But only on one condition . . . you have to earn the right to squawk about the government.

You can earn that right by VOTING.

Sure, if you don't vote you can still squawk your head off—legally, too. But griping about the results of an election you didn't vote in is like squawking about the way the schools are run—if you don't pay your taxes.

It's the difference between kibitzing and playing your own hand.

That's why politicians are so almighty sensitive to squawks—when they come from VOTERS.

And that's why you lose a lot more than an election if you don't vote—no matter who wins.

Yes, rather than squawk about your government for the next four years, VOTE for it NOW.

"See you at the polls!"

SOUTHERN MEDICS MEET
IN MIAMI NOV. 10-13

Some 2500 doctors from sixteen southern states and the District of Columbia will be converging on Florida soon.

The annual meeting of the Southern Medical Association, the world's second largest regular medical assembly, will be held in Miami, November 10 to 13. Total attendance expected is more than 4000 persons, including doctors' wives, technicians, exhibitors, and members of allied professions.

The 48 half-day sessions, many meeting simultaneously, are entirely scientific, for the sole purpose of furthering medical progress and increasing its services to the public.

Some 250 individual papers will be presented and discussed. The speakers include noted medical authorities from various cities of the United States, Cuba and Puerto Rico.

Senator Seward Hefland of Florida will be the single non-medical speaker. He is to address the opening assembly on November 10, the only meeting of the convention open to the public.

Oil Heating Best
Say Men At Parley

A number of Belle Glade business men were among the 200 persons attending an oil heating conference held in West Palm Beach last week. Planned and sponsored by Florida Power and Light Company to explain methods of heating Florida houses during winter cold snaps, the conference included a dinner at the George Washington Hotel.

Attending from Belle Glade were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hindbrook, owners of the Home Hardware Store; Tommy Parker and Rudolph (Bud) McMillan of Glades Appliance Corporation; Ray Biggerstaff, architect from John Pickett's office; Benie Richmond, James L. Motes, and Paul Brackin of Richmond Plumbing Company; Joe G. Cassellius, local building contractor; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson, representing the city of Belle Glade.

R. D. Hill, division manager of FPL, stressed the need for practical and economical methods of heating Florida houses during cold days. "Oil heating is by far the best," he said. "The fact that Floridians prefer it two to one is proof of its popularity. In Southeast Florida, 51,000 oil heaters were purchased for home installation during the 1950-52 winter season."

According to Mrs. Martin, her husband "did not realize" at the time that he was hurt. Later, however, after examination by Dr. Thomas Baker, local chiropractor, Mr. Martin was taken to West Palm Beach for further examinations by a bone specialist. The operation this week was performed by Dr. Theodore Rindley.

EIGHT
REASONS for WOMEN
NOT TO VOTE

"I just washed my hair and I can't go out!" Lady, you'll wash Freedom right out of your hair—sooner or later—with that point of view.

"I'm disgusted with politics." All the more reason to vote! Remember—bad officials are elected by good citizens who don't vote.

"I'm too busy with the kids" ...yet what better example of the Good Citizenship they're growing into—than to see you go off to the polls.

"I don't know a thing about issues or candidates." You can read a recipe; you can figure out a dress pattern. There's still time to make up your intelligent mind on how to vote.

"I can't vote—I'm not registered." The catch in that, lady, is that in most states there's still plenty of time to register. (Find out the registration situation in your own community, right away!)

"I think a woman's place is in the home." Maybe it is on every day except November 4. Then it's at the polls. (You women fought hard for the ballot—why not use it?)

"My husband does the voting for us." If only the man wore the votes of the family what a state this country would be in!

"I don't agree with my husband's choice—so I won't vote!" Madam, are you going to win for your husband's man by kissing the polls goodbye?

There are more women than men in this country—of voting age—52,000,000 of them. That's enough to run any election right. Yet, ever since 1920, when women first had the chance to vote, more men than women have gone to the polls. Isn't that a shame?

Ladies, you can elect 'em—if you vote. You can't vote unless you're registered. Register. Then vote.

EAST LAKE SCHOOL NEWS Camp Highlights

We are happy to say that our activities are being carried on as planned. The second month of school has brought about a change in our enrollment. Students are gradually returning daily from various places and back again in school routines.

Assembly: Our next assembly program will be presented on October 31. At this time the second grade "B" class and sponsor, Miss Edna Gavin will entertain the school family and guests by presenting a Halloween playlet.

Guest speakers on program will be Mr. Lewis Friend, mayor of Pahokee and Mrs. Jack Wilson, State Welfare and PTA Council worker from West Palm Beach, Fla. Much is being evidenced in this next assembly.

Vesper to be held:

Patrons and friends are invited to attend our vesper program on Nov. 2 at 8:00 p.m. Appearing for the first time this term at the school center the musical department is making its second approach in developing this new series of programs. We are looking forward to having greater cooperation and full support from our friends and neighboring communities. Announcements of these services will be given as scheduled for future performance.

Plan for the Halloween Party—

Yes, a party is being held at East Lake on Friday night. We are planning a big school-community affair which you will enjoy. Dress up "If you like," because prizes will be awarded to anyone wearing the most unique and original costumes. There will be something to interest everybody. Come in large crowds on HALLOWEEN NIGHT.

A. Wednesday, October 22, 1952. Gloria Smith was mistress of ceremonies. Mary Byron introduced the guest speaker, Rev. J. B. Adams, pastor of the First Baptist Church, who spoke on "The Possibility of Youth." Carrie O'Neal sang "Tears," at which the class officers and members were presented to the student body. The class officers are as follows:

Mattie Mae Starks, president; Gloria Smith, vice president; Rosa Lou Peterson, secretary; Barbara Pollard, asst. secretary; Irma Jean Mullins, treasurer; Sarah Peany, chaplain; Mary Byron, sergeant-at-arms; Carrie Mae O'Neal, reporter.

The advisor of Everglades Vocational NFA chapter, Mr. J. J. Holliday, had a conference, as requested by the chap ter, with Mr. Davidson, local FFA advisor, making plans to borrow the FFA chapter caterpillar tractor and plow to break up six acres of the ten-acre plot on the southeastern boundary of Okeechobee Labor Camp. This tract of land has recently been made available by the Palm Beach County School Board for the chap ter members to develop a demonstration farm, carrying out the modern farm practices.

This NFA chapter has been recently provided with a new Ford tractor. This machine will be used to operate this farm in many operations that can be demonstrated in carrying out this program.

If weather permits, about twenty chapter members will begin preparation of their individual project by November 1st. Many of these projects would have been well on the way had it not been for the continuous rainy season.

WHY I LIKE IKE

By C. A. Bailey
(Not to be confused with the column This Narrow Corner, Herald editor who would vote for a freshman and the Democratic candidates in the Nov. 4 election. The week C. A.
Bailey's "Why I Like Ike" and "The Eisenhower" gives his views on the presidential election.)

Thanks to Mary Winne for giving me an opportunity to tell my friends why I favor Eisenhower for President.

First of all, I believe in putting the men in office that are best qualified for the job to be done, regardless of party affiliation.
A presidential campaign ago, too many of the nation's voters fell for the carry-over line from 1944, "Don't change horses in midstream." The U. S. didn't keep the same horse in office; and the stream became a torrent of government by proxy, muddled by corruption, flowing through shadows of overexpenditure, extravagance and bad judgment.

The Fair Dealers tell us we "never had it so good." We are aware that we never had taxes so high, never were so close to a third World War, never saw crooked political forces push the high office of the presidency around so much, never had so much bureaucratic interference in business, never had such a "controlled" economy, never had such an uncertain foreign policy.

This week has given us a perfect example of what we need: right without cutting history books for the reference.
John L. Lewis, whose complete disregard for the government of his country, the will of the Congress or the President, or for the individual American, has never been more apparent than in the past four years, has been a gem of a solution to the tide-and oil problem. Lewis, codified by the Truman administration which is so forcefully behind the "Democratic" candidate or the presidency, not only wants the government to get involved in business, but wants the proceeds therefrom to go into a vast fund to improve education throughout the U. S.

On the face of it, there is no worthier proposal than that of settling the U. S. educational system. The only trouble with Lewis's idea of using more federal funds (all this, remember, provided that it is stolen from State use) is that it would just naturally involve another Federal bureaucracy. Whereas, the state of Florida, with amendment No. 1 on the ballot, gives people the chance to approve betterment of the school system in this state by using STATE-gathered funds, within this STATE, to help solve the problem of school overcrowding, outmoded buildings, insufficient teachers, Florida, or any other State, does not need government theorists, nurtured on New Deal concepts, to step in with yet another socialist trend.

It has been said that states' rights want states' rights when it is a question of getting or keeping something, and that they want Federal aid when it is a question of getting something. There was a time when residents of the Glades had to accept some Federal assistance or perish. Flood control and drainage, which is a problem throughout the nation, must therefore be a part of the total national government with a Federal center of guidance and planning.

But through the years it has become increasingly clear to thinking people, that the free handouts showered down by the government, presented in some form of "government assistance," have long, unbreakable strings to them. The socialistic concept of government—something for everybody without charge, the Great White Father government practice—makes us liable to all sorts of interference by government "experts" and "advisers." AND—every March 15th the bill comes due.

The "Democratic for Eisenhower" are tired of having a federal government which grows more powerful every year, while American individuals, free enterprise and the tax-paying
"common man" grow poorer and weaker every year.

The "Democrats for Eisenhower" do not believe that a federal government which grows
more powerful every year, while American individuals, free enterprise and the tax-paying
"common man" grow poorer and
weaker every year.

Only by changing the whole face of the Administration do we Democrats for Eisenhower believe that this situation can be remedied. We look forward to a government which will NOT give such Americans as John Doster, Dallas and Benita Baruch the go-by while putting a vast horde of second-raters in charge of our nation's very heart and strength.

I know some of my friends are still going to vote a straight Democratic ticket, and I appreciate their forthrightness in saying so. I cannot understand why more business and professional men and women, especially, who should be leaders in the community, are unwilling to express themselves openly, or take a definite stand, thereby setting an example for others to follow.

We believe the lines are clearly drawn, and that this is the year of decision for the future of our nation.

VOTE ON NOVEMBER 4th.

300 OF THE BEST TO

There'll be 300 of the state's finest Angus, Hereford and Brahman cattle on display at Webster's Sumter All-Florida Breeders Show, scheduled November 5-8 this year. T. Noble Brown, general chairman of the event, predicted recently.
Entries are expected from as far away as Pensacola and Fort Lauderdale, Calahan and Starke, he disclosed. This will be the seventh annual event at Webster, and will be the largest ever held there. The event is second only to the Florida State Fair at Tampa in number of beef cattle on display.
Sales of Hereford and Aberdeen-Angus cattle will be highlights of the four-day show. On Thursday, November 6, 60 registered Hereford bulls will be auctioned, and on Friday, November 7, 50 registered Angus, most of them females, will be sold. Opening day (Wednesday) will be Brahman Day.
Judge for all breeds will be George Bibbe, Hereford breeder of Mountain Cove Farms, Kensington, Georgia.
Entry of cattle will close at 8:00 a. m., Wednesday, November 5, and classification of entries will start immediately, with Brahman judging scheduled to start at 9:00 a. m.
Crying the two registered cat-tles will be George Kurtz of Sturgis, Kentucky, Angus, and Tom McCord of Montgomery, Alabama, selling the Herefords.
Cattle will be on display throughout the four days, until 2:00 p. m. on Saturday. Sale cattle, of course, will be allowed to leave the barn immediately following the sales. All prizes will be awarded on Saturday,

WEDGORTH TO SPEAK
OVER WSNW TOMORROW

Tomorrow morning at 11:15, in a broadcast sponsored by the Kilgore Seed Company, George Wedgorth, vice president of the vegetable section of Florida State Horticultural Society will discuss the program schedule of the Society's sixty-fifth annual convention to be held in St. Petersburg Nov. 5-7. Numerous vegetable growers from the Glades area, as well as Experiment Station experts, are expected to attend the convention sessions.

Activities of Glades Scouts

Questionnaires recently completed by prospective Girl Scouts are now in the hands of the Central Committee and the information on them is being recorded for further reference.
The response from the girls was good, and the number of parents willing to help in one way or another betrays a bright setting for the Girl Scout Movement.

As many mothers were contacted as possible and invited to an open meeting which was held Thursday night, Oct. 23 at the Girl Scout Hut. Mrs. A. B. Mc-Cormick, chairman of the council gave an enthusiastic report on her recent trip to Charlotte, N. C., where she attended a regional meeting of the Girl Scouts. She said representatives from National Headquarters in New York City were so pleased with the type of questionnaire we used here in Belle Glade this year for the girls they asked her for a copy and said they intended to recommend the usage of that blank throughout the country.

Owing to adverse weather conditions here in the Glades for the past few weeks Mrs. Mc-Cormick told her audience it has been impossible to start the actual repair work on the hut; but when the weather improves to the point that such can be done, it will be completed in the shortest time possible.

Girl Scout troop leaders for the coming year include Mrs.
Judy Wright, Mrs. F. C. Anderson, Mrs. R. E. Tucker, Mrs.
Beatrice Prevatt, and Mrs. Calley Collins. Mrs. J. A. Ball, Jr., Mrs. S. Gordon and Mrs. O. B.
Smith will serve as assistant leaders. Mrs. Robert Allen, for many years a Brownie troop leader both in Lake Worth and Mayland, will be advisor to the leaders of the Brownie troops.

Well over one hundred girls have expressed a desire to be Scouts this year. And to these girls the following notice is important. Girl Scout Roundup—the day you sign up with your troop and the Saturday afternoon at the Girl Scout Hut.
Time has been set for 1:00 p.m.
You will be divided into plenty of time to make the three o'clock movie.

November 8 should be a big day for your girls and for any girl who wants to be in Scouts this year. You will be divided into groups insofar as possible and advisable, according to your age. Your leaders will be on hand to make you feel welcome.
Members of the Central committee and parents willing to serve as troop committee members are also urged to attend this meeting.

The leaders met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. McCormick in the first of a series of classes to undertake a study of the handbook which will enable them to prepare the best possible programs for the year and to acquaint themselves with Scouting and all that it entails.

An easy way to spread Chris-mas cheer is to make beach bags for the girls who love to swim.
Won't cost a thing to make from a full sized 25-pound cotton four bag. Just line with Terry Cloth and bind edges with grosgrain ribbon one inch wide.
See the National Cotton Council.

"Free Enterprise" at its best

We read and hear a lot about the "free enterprise system" these days. It's the American way of life, and it's certainly the world's best.

But your neighborhood Standard Oil dealer (who is an independent business man, operating his own business, employing his own help, paying his own taxes), has his own definition of free enterprise.

He's found from experience that the service station operator who has the enterprise to offer extra free services, is the one who winds up with the most customers. That's why, year after year more southern motorists patronize their neighborhood Standard Oil dealer.

VETERANS INFORMATION AND SERVICE

By Melvin T. Dixon
State Service Officer
LOWER DOWN PAYMENTS
ON HOMES TO VETS — REGULATION X SUSPENDED.

After certification by the Secretary Labor that new non-farm housing starts have been below an annual rate of 1,200,000 units for three consecutive months, the Administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency has instructed the Federal Housing Administration, the Veterans Administration and the U. S. Department of Agriculture to relax down payment requirements on home loans aided or made by the Federal government.

The effect of these regulations on VA-guaranteed home loans generally, are: Minimum down payment requirements will be 5 percent as permitted by law, on all housing priced above $5,400 . . . instead of increasing up to 35 percent on higher-priced houses as previously required. For houses priced above $7,000 but not more than $8,400, the down payment minimum is 10 percent, approximately the same as previous requirements. No down payment is required on houses priced at $7,000 or less. However, closing costs, up to 4 percent of the price, must be paid in cash on houses at $7,000 or less.

To determine the maximum permissible loan, subtract the required down payment from the sum of the sales price and closing costs. Example: Sales price is $10,000 . . . closing costs are $200. Required minimum cash down payment from veteran—$500 (5 percent of sales price). Maximum loan is $9,500 ($10,200 minus $500).

However, I wish to warn you veterans, that the new down payment schedule sets minimum requirements, and that lenders may require larger down payments.
